UD MUSIC FACULTY AND STUDENTS TO PERFORM IN PRESIDENT'S CONCERT

DAYTON, Ohio, March 28, 1990--University of Dayton music faculty members and students will join together for the annual President's Concert on Sunday, April 8, at 3 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on campus. The performance is free and open to the public.

Featured at the concert will be senior Catherine Totman, winner of the 1990 UD student concerto competition held in February. She will perform "Concerto for Horn, Op. 11" by Richard Strauss.

The University Symphonic Wind Ensemble will perform under the direction of Richard Chenoweth, assistant professor of music at UD. The program will include "The Fifth Trumpeter" by W. Francis McBeth, "Walking Tune" by Percy Aldridge Granger, "Folk Song Suite" by Ralph Vaughan Williams and "Colonial Airs and Dances" by Robert Jager.

The UD Music Division Faculty and Student Honors Wind Ensemble, under the direction of David Hoffman, assistant professor of music at UD, will perform "Serenade, Op. 44" by Antonin Dvorak.

The program will also include the presentation of the Outstanding Senior award and the Senior Spirit award, both sponsored by the UD Band Alumni Association to honor members of the band program at UD.

For more information on the President's Concert, contact the UD music division at (513) 229-3936.
